The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 17, to Saturday February 21, 1761.

St. James's, February 21.

THE following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir William Courtenay, Bart. and Sir Richard Bampfylde, Bart. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, attended by Mr. Courtenay, Mr. Champernowne, General A'Court, Mr. Buller, and Mr. Morſhead, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AMONGST the Number of loyal and faithful Subjects, who approach your Royal Preſence to condole the Demiſe of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms; permit us, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of your County of Devon, to expreſs the genuine Sentiments of our Hearts on both theſe moſt affecting Occurrences.

The Loſs of your Royal Grandfather, at a Time when a ſteady and uninterrupted Perſeverance in thoſe vigorous Meaſures, which he had ſo ſucceſsfully purſued, was of ſo much Importance to our Country, naturally clouded the Brow of every true Briton: And when we reflected, that this was the ſame Prince, who, for a long Series of Years, had always conſulted the Happineſs of His People, no Sorrow could equal that of our grateful Hearts.

But in the Midſt of this reaſonable Grief, we could not be blind to that indulgent Care of Providence, which ſo long preſerved this precious Life, till Time had matured thoſe Royal Virtues, which wipe all Tears from our Eyes; it ſeemed an Omen that ſome mighty Bleſſing was in Store for us, which was cheriſhed by ſo ſignal an Interpoſition of Divine Favour.

Thus animated, we ſee your Majeſty aſcend the Throne of your Anceſtors with perfect Satisfaction; we receive your gracious Aſſurances of Protection and Love of your Native Country, with that Confidence which is due to your Princely Piety and Virtue; and promiſe ourſelves all that Felicity, which a dutiful People can expect from a tender Father of His Country.

May your Majeſty's Reign over us be long and happy; and may this Æra be marked out to future Generations, as an Example of Loyalty and Affection in an united People, towards the greateſt and beſt of Princes.

The two following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Cloyne.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Cloyne, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to expreſs the Part which we bear in the common Joy, on Account of your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms: An Event, which affords to all your faithful Subjects a pleaſing Proſpect of the Continuance of thoſe ſignal Bleſſings, which we enjoyed for many Years, under the wiſe and equitable Adminiſtration of your Royal Predeceſſor, our late glorious and good King.

With Hearts, juſtly ſenſible of the Gratitude due to the Memory of the beſt of Kings, we are moſt truly thankful to Almighty God, for granting us a Succeſſor of His Royal Line, who, directed by His wiſe Inſtruction and illuſtrious Example, hath early cultivated ſuch Principles of Religion and Liberty, and other Royal Virtues, as cannot fail to make him reign in the Hearts of His Subjects.

Your Majeſty's gracious Declaration to your People, and your Royal Proclamation, for the Suppreſſing Profaneneſs and Immorality, are to us the moſt comfortable Pledges, that the ſame worthy Sentiments, which were early impreſſed on your Royal Mind, are intended by your Majeſty, as the fixed Baſis of your future Reign.

Not to concur with your Majeſty's pious and generous Intentions for the Happineſs of your People, as far as it is in our Power, would be in us a grievous Neglect of that Duty, which we owe to God, and to your Majeſty. We ſhall therefore, together with our conſtant and fervent Prayers to Almighty God, that He would ſhower down His choiceſt Bleſſings on your Majeſty, during the Courſe of a long and happy Reign, conſider it as our indiſpenſible Duty, and make it our conſtant Care, with the warmeſt Zeal, to inculcate on the Minds of thoſe committed to our Charge, thoſe Principles of true Religion and Loyalty; which, if duly obſerved, not only are the ſureſt Means, to obtain us the Protection of that Providence, by which Princes reign, but alſo have a natural Tendency to make us an happy People, under the Adminiſtration of a Wiſe and Religious King.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgeſſes and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our deep Concern for the Loſs of our late moſt gracious Sovereign.

The uniform and uninterrupted Enjoyment of all our Rights, Civil and Religious, during His benign Reign, His Paternal Care for the Welfare of His People, and His many Royal Virtues, ſhall ever be had in moſt grateful Remembrance by us.

Divine Providence hath reſerved it for your Majeſty to ſupply this great Loſs; permit us therefore, Royal Sir, to join in Congratulations on your Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms, and humbly to tender our Hearts inviolably attached to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, the Support of your Majeſty's Government, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in your Illuſtrious Houſe.

May your Majeſty long reign in the Hearts of a faithful People; and may your Reign be proſperous and glorious in War, and happy and honourable in Peace.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, the Sixteenth Day of January, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-one.

Hague,

Hague, February 13. The News of the Elector of Cologne's Death is confirmed from ſeveral Parts, and particularly from Munſter. His Electoral Highneſs was ſeized, on the 6th Inſtant, with a ſudden Diſorder at Ehrenbreiſtein, (where he was paſſing on his Road to Munich) and died that Night.

A freſh Invaſion having been made by the Ruſſians, under General Tottleben, into Pomerania, the Prince of Bevern has been appointed to command againſt them; and was aſſembling all the Force he could, in thoſe Parts, to oppoſe them.

Whitehall, February 21.

By Accounts, received this Day from Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Uſlar, dated the 8th Inſtant, it appears, That the Army under his Serene Highneſs's Command was in Motion, and that he himſelf intended paſſing the Weſer the next Day; after which the Troops would be all aſſembled, in order to march forward. We hear from Corvey, That the Detachment under Major General Howard, conſiſting of ten Battalions and twelve Squadrons, (of which Force there are only four Britiſh Regiments) was expected to arrive at Geſecke, and in the Neighbourhood thereof, on the 4th Inſtant, according to their Deſtination.

The Accounts from Uſlar farther ſay, That Operations are now carrying on towards the Upper Werra by General Sporcken, who will be aſſiſted therein by a Corps of Pruſſians, under the Command of General Sibourg, which is to be reinforced by three Battalions of Grenadiers, and five Squadrons, under Colonel Lolhoffel, and to advance towards Gotha and Eyſenach.

Whitehall, February 21.

The King has been pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Thomas Thorrowgood, Eſq; High Sheriff of the County of Suffolk.

Schomberg-Houſe, February 17.

This Day the Baron de Cramm, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Brunſwick, had his Audience of Leave of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland.

To which he was introduced by Sir Charles Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Admiralty Office, February 18.

Capt. Johnſtone, of His Majeſty's Sloop the Hornet, gives an Account, by Letter dated at Liſbon the 29th of January, That he had taken and carried into that Port, a French Privatier called the Society of St. Malo's, of 6 Guns and 60 Men.

Whitehall, February 21, 1761.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that the following threatening Letter has been wrote to Mr. William Goddard, of Watford in the County of Hertford, viz.

" December 4. 1760.

" Mr. Gorrod if you intend to go an in the maner " as you go an you may geſs watt I mean you ſhall " ſhorley have a braſe of Bollots thru your Head or " your Body as ever you are borne for if I cant have " you by Night I will have you by Day you ſhant tell " hu hurt you you damd onder minden Roge thar is no " Ways to manage you But that I thank you have run " your Raſe long anuff in this Toune but now you have " got in to good Hands to due your Jobb."

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in Writing the ſaid threatening Letter, is, hereby, pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them who ſhall diſcover his, or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, (except the Perſon who actually wrote the ſame) ſo that he, ſhe, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the ſaid Mr. William Goddard of Watford in the ſaid County of Hertford, does, hereby, promiſe a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Perſon, or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid; to be paid by him, upon the Conviction of any one, or more of the Offenders.

Wm. Goddard.

Whitehall, February 21, 1761.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that, on Wedneſday Night the 17th of December laſt, a Fire broke out in a Barn at Spinham Land, near Newbury, Berks, belonging to James Payton, in the Occupation of Adam Andrews, which there is great Reaſon to believe was wilfully ſet on Fire; and, on the ſucceeding Night, a Barn, nearly adjoining to the above, belonging to Joſeph Andrews, Eſq; in the Occupation of Abraham Sandy, was attempted to be ſet on Fire, by ſome malicious and ill diſpoſed Perſon; And on Wedneſday the 18th of this Inſtant February the ſaid Barn, belonging to the ſaid Joſeph Andrews, Eſq; was actually ſet on Fire, and burnt down; His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned therein, is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Perſon that actually did ſet Fire to the ſaid Barns, or either of them) who ſhall diſcover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo as he, ſhe, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And as a farther Encouragement, the above Joſeph Andrews, Eſq; of Shaw, near Newbury, Berks, and James Payton, of Norton Falgate, in the County of Middleſex, do promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid; to be paid on the Conviction of any of the Offenders.

Joſ. Andrews.
Ja. Payton.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.
